DEDICATION

We, the Seniors of 1939, wish to dedicate this edition of the Lllamarada to the memory of our former sponsor, Mr. Carl Smith, and to his high ideals and standards.

Mr. Smith was our sponsor for four years. He was patient, kind, and sympathetic to each and every one of us. Although Miss Raines and Mr. Stewart have tried to take his place as our sponsor, we still feel the need of him.

FOREWORD

A portrayal of school life as it exists, and a recognition of the factors which contribute to our growth and development have been our aim in this book. We have essayed to acknowledge progress in buildings and in extended courses of study—the material side of school life. But more important than this is our debt to those who foster our school spirit and loyalty,—the athletic organizations, clubs and faculty.

The success which we, the Senior Class of 1939, have achieved in our various endeavors and in the publication of this book, we attribute to the constant encouragement and guidance of our sponsors, Miss Raines and Mr. Stewart.

HISTORY OF CLASS OF 1939

In digging through the annals of time amid dozens of dust covered documents, we noticed a picture bearing the label of Primary Class of 1927 of Ellettsville Public Schools, Ellettsville, Indiana. This brings to one's mind a room full of timid, shy, little creatures, some with dirty faces, some clinging to Mrs. Brown's skirts, some crying, and some getting their knuckles cracked with a ruler. Such behavior and conduct lasted for one year only, at which time we were promoted to Miss Price's room. Year after year the happy, carefree group of youngsters progressed, until one day in September, 1935, Mr. Weathers designated us as the freshmen of Ellettsville High School and appointed Mr. Carl Smith as our sponsor. At this time new recruits were received from Cross Roads School, Joint School, Vernal School, Gross School, Bloomington School, and ten new members came in from the eighth grade. This boosted the class roll to a total of sixty-six, which was the largest freshman class that has ever entered Ellettsville High School. Even though we outnumbered the upper classmen, we took our initiation in the form of old-fashioned hazing, but to our dismay, Mr. Weathers announced, at the end of the noon hour, that next year we would give a party and initiate the next class in the regular way.

As this class traveled the upward road to higher education, one by one we members became lost in the insurmountable heights of geometry and the pitfalls of Caesar; unable to read the signboards of algebra and our digestion made bad by sour English, the class roll diminished to forty-three at the beginning of the junior year. At this time we found our pathway much easier.

Because of the death of our sponsor, during the summer months, Mr. Clarence Stewart was appointed as sponsor and Billy Kelly as president. All efforts were directed toward that great event, the Junior-Senior Banquet. After the meal, all members of both classes and the faculty engaged in a snowball fight and then withdrew to the Indiana Theatre. In order to make this banquet possible, it was necessary for the juniors to sell candy at the ball games and give two plays, entitled "THREE DAYS OF GRACE," and "WHO SAID QUIT?" We also sponsored the WHAS radio stars, "The Texas Rangers" and served lunch to three hundred spellers.

In the fall of 1938, thirty-nine members appeared in our senior lines with determination written on our faces: a determination to succeed. This year is the climax—Miss Raines was appointed co-sponsor and Grant Stewart, Jr., president; and with the co-operation of every class member in soliciting ads, in sponsoring two radio programs, "The Texas Rangers," and "Sunshine Sue" and in presenting the senior play, "Small Town Romeo," we are able to publish this annual, which is another milestone of our success and which we hope will guide and inspire the future classes to continue making old E. H. S. better.

CLASS PROPHECY

In the year of 1940, the 1939 graduating class of Ellettsville High School held a reunion and decided to charter a plane, called the Eagle Clipper, to take a trip around the world. They started May 20, 1940. Each member was aboard with his wife, her husband, and sweetheart. Just as they were passing over the Hawaiian Islands, they were forced to land. The class decided to stay awhile entertaining themselves.

Then years later, 1950, we see the class after they were forced down in Hawaii. A part of the class has gone back to the United States and a part of them has remained on the Islands. L. Dee Addie, who is back in Indiana, is a drummer boy in that universally known swing band called the "Wild Cat" band, whose leader is Robert Jackson. Robert is known all over America as the "king of swing."

Ellen Berry is a beauty parlor operator in one of the many beauty parlors in Ellettsville. Naomi Breeden is a stenographer in a J. C. Penney dry goods store in Stanford, Indiana.

Maxine Brown, that witty brown-eyed little girl, is a maid for Mrs. Forrest Freeman. Maxine is very fond of her occupation. Ella-louise Bruce has grown old and faded because her lover remained in Hawaii to woo a native girl.

Helen Carpenter has won fame being an Interior Decorator for one of the country's larger furniture factories. Dola Conner has taken advantage of her ability to draw and is teaching art in one of the leading universities in the country.

Adah Crider has married some young man and is said to have one of the most perfect homes that a girl could wish for. Luella Crismore stayed on the Islands and has grieved herself into insanity over a sweetheart who was carried away by a native girl.

Betty Curry has realized a childhood ambition and has become a head waitress in one of the most up to date hotels. Ruth Curry has found her a sweetheart. Everyone is expecting to hear of an exclusive wedding to take place soon.

Clair Dillman, the most mischievous member of the class, is now a manufacturer of bow ties and striped socks. Clair has settled down since his schooldays and has a sweet little wife and a set of twins.

Leland Engledow is seen in the sport-light as being one of the most sought-after basketball coaches in America.

Paul Hanna is continuing the occupation of his boyhood days and is making a moderate living tilling the soil. Ruth Hazel, the girl who found that it is better to be thin than fat, is teaching others the same thing. Ruth is an expert dietician.

Maurice Holsapple has become a skilled mechanic from the practice of his boyhood days.

Helen Johnston, a well-known member of the class, is now living a life of leisure. Helen has a maid and a moderate sum of money because her husband, Forrest Freeman, has a chain of grocery stores on the Islands.

Billy Kelly has worked for the last ten years to the top of the ladder as a state patrolman. He "gets 'em" every time. He is expected to have a helper soon. It is none other than Garnet Truesdel. They are making great plans to be patrolmen together, patrolling their children.

Jane McCown, the high school pianist, is now teaching music in one of the high schools in Hawaii. Jane found her mate when she received her job there. Norma Myers, the girl with that "come and take me" appearance, has been taken by a Hollywood director. Norma is making a fabulous salary.

Sigrid Moffatt was married to Herbert Hendricks a few months before their trip to Hawaii. They own the most modern hotel in America, and they are being successful. They are living the life they love.

Mamie Oliver is still around Ellettsville. Mamie has never married because she was left with a broken heart by a former sweetheart in her schooldays. Junior Olsson, a well-known character of the class, is a night club king in Hawaii with many and beautiful native girls.

Warren Schooling has become one of the leading public political speakers of America. He and his wife, the former Jeanne Ranard, travel from state to state making speeches. Virginia Shigley has turned out to be one of the finest gymnastic teachers for girls found in the country.

Caroline Sears has become Mrs. William Barger and lives in Columbus, Indiana. Caroline has a fine little home—the dream of her childhood. Grant Stewart, who was president of the class, has become a great architect in Hawaii.

Glen Stines, who was a member of the ball team in 1939, has become a professional player. Glen is considered one of the best ball players in America. Ruth Stultz is now Mrs. Maurice Williams and lives with her parents. She is living a very quiet life.

Rozelle Trowbridge was married immediately after she was graduated. She has a fine home and is applying the knowledge she received in high school in Home Economics classes. Coziene Weathers, the used-to-be and still-is hero of all the girls, has become a nationally famous doctor. Dr. Weathers guarantees to cure all pains and discomforts or your money back.

Eugene Weaver, that perfect angel in his schooldays, has kept the good work up and has become an active missionary worker in Hawaii.

Mary Kathryn Winkler, that happy-go-lucky girl of the class, has become a stewardess and is employed by her husband, Fred Crum, who, following a flaming desire, has taken to the sea, and with great success has become owner of a steamship line.

CLASS SONG

Our school days are ending,
Our studies are through,
Dear Ellettsville High School
We're thinking of you.

We've followed your teachers,
We've tried to be true,
Dear Ellettsville High School
We're loyal to you.

With mem'ries to guide us,
By day and by night,
Your spirit beside us
We're sure to go right.

We'll try to be worthy,
Our best we will do,
Dear Ellettsville High School
We're grateful to you.

CLASS POEM

L. Dee Addie is an ambitious lad,
He'll be the best mayor Vincennes had;
His Ford may be a little old,
But he measures its worth in gold!

Ellen Berry, a small town girl,
Thinks freckles have a certain lure!
Maybe she's right, we wouldn't know;
We'll ask someone from Gosport though.

Naomi Breeden what shall we say
That she likes to dream away the day?
Or maybe it's love, at least we'll guess,
For she's a right cute little lass.

Maxine Brown, so they tell,
In basketball sure can yell.
We know for talking she has no rule
And talks a lot, even at school!

Ellalouise Bruce, is never blue—
And always sympathizes with you;
When you need her, she won't fail.
And other's troubles, seems to hail.

Helen Carpenter, we can well say
A model wants to be someday—
And she plans to be an army wife.
Remember, you take the vow for life!

Dola Conner, a right pretty blonde
At school she really gets around;
A sweet disposition, and friendly to all,
She'll help you any time you call.

Adah Crider, I think we can say,
Goes laughing throughout the day.
She's always ready for some fun—
And is friendly to all and everyone.

Luella Crismore, so a clown thought,
Was the prettiest girl he ever sought;
Was it by chance he fell for her?
Or did she use some magic lure?

Fred Crum, known better as "Red,"
With the girls really gets ahead!
He prefers Bedford girls the best
And likes Brunettes better'n the rest.

Betty Curry, a basketball fan,
Along with Roosevelt should have ran;
We wouldn't be afraid to bet a dime
That politics is right along her line!

Ruth Curry, small and quiet,
Is a believer in what's right—
We hear she can carry a tune,
And will be a great singer soon!

Clair Dillman, the fun of the school,
He isn't afraid to break a rule;
His deportment may be a little bad,
But good grades he could have had.

Leland Engledow, or is it "Bing"?
Will someday on the radio sing,
He thinks Crosby's good in his way,
But he could beat him any day.

Forrest Freeman, a handsome kid,
With the girls asks no aid;
A good player on our team—
He helps Ellettsville win the game.

Paul Hanna, a future farmer,
About the girls is a little calmer;
It's not that they get in his hair,
But he just hasn't time to care!

Ruth Hazel, like all the rest,
Likes a certain boy's ring best;
It won't be long 'till school is out,
But we'd miss not having her about.

Herbert Hendricks, not at all bad,
Several girls could have had;
But he likes to usher to class,
A certain little Senior lass!

Maurice Holsapple, one of the "gang",
While young will have his fling;
Not bad looking, dark and tall;
No wonder for him the girls fall!

Robert Jackson, his ambition on fire,
Thinks he'll be a great ball star!
He likes to argue with the rest,
But thinks his argument is probably best.

===== L L A M A R A D A =====

Helen Johnston, a pretty lass,
Is well liked by all the class—
Girls, beware! From what they say
She can beat your time any day.

Virginia Shigley, school wouldn't miss,
Thinks playing hooky an awful disgrace.
She'll do her best, though 'tisn't tops,
And her 4H work she never drops.

Billy Kelly, as the saying goes,
A certain girl steps on his toes;
It's really enough to make him fail
With two Senior girls on his trail!

Grant Stewart, our class president,
Will make a very good resident—
He's here, away, and everywhere,
Always helping a pal over there.

Jane McCown, small and fair,
At the piano she'll do her share;
Rather quiet, not much to say,
You never find her in the way.

Glen Stines, a favorite of all,
Is quite good at playing ball.
He may not take studying serious—
But the way he plays ball is furious!

Sigrid Moffatt, sometimes late for books,
Knows a Senior struck on her looks.
She's never afraid to take a dare—
And treats everyone alike and fair.

Ruth Stultz, what's this we hear,
That your over-joyed June is near?
My! My! and as a nice little wife
She'll love, honor, and obey for life!

Norma Myers, small and sweet—
In flirting sure can't be beat!
She never has much to say—
But with the boys she has a way.

Rozelle Trowbridge, so we hear,
Thinks eighth grade boys are dear.
To like them all she thinks is fun,
So she hasn't picked a certain one.

Mamie Oliver, bashful and quiet,
Can blush and giggle quite allright.
As a guitar player she'll do,
And help honor Ellettsville school.

Garnet Truesdel, according to rule,
Wouldn't miss a day of school;
She really is a friendly gal—
As to us all she is a pal.

Junior Olsson, known as "hot-shot",
Seems to enjoy school a lot!
As a student, we'll admit he's good—
He'd probably skip school if he could!

Coziene Weathers, polite and nice,
Always tells the same thing twice;
Girls aren't much along his line—
But as a student he really does fine.

Jeanne Ranard, our assistant treasurer,
Thinks school is quite a pleasure;
Friendly and with a quick smile,
Talking to her is well worth while.

Eugene Weaver, sometimes called "Smokey",
In getting to school may be pokey;
Likes to stay around filling-stations—
And with the girls takes his rations.

Warren Schooling thinks he's in luck;
On one of our Seniors he's badly struck!
We really couldn't blame her though,
For he's one of the best lads we know.

Mary Winkler, or should we say "Kate"?
The honor roll will usually rate;
An easy laugh, a ready smile,
She makes our school well worth while.

Caroline Sears, a popular Miss,
Any handsome boy would kiss;
And as for church she's always there.
To her it means thought and care.

SENIOR PLAY

SMALL TOWN ROMEO

"Small Town Romeo", as you probably know, is the name of the class play that the Seniors of 1939 presented on March 24. The "Small Town Romeo" was Leland Engledow and he rescued a "Pretty Heroine" from the clutches of the "Village Miser." The "Pretty Heroine" was Norma Myers and the "Village Miser" was Herb Hendricks. There was a "Town Constable" (Clair Dillman), who falls in love with the "Maid-of-All-Work" (Garnet Truesdel). The cast was the following:

|                             |       |                 |
|-----------------------------|-------|-----------------|
| A Playwright from New York  | ----- | Leland Engledow |
| Young Proprietor of a Hotel | ----- | Norma Myers     |
| Village Constable           | ----- | Clair Dillman   |
| Spinster Maid-of-All-Work   | ----- | Garnet Truesdel |
| Mysterious Guest            | ----- | L. Dee Addie    |
| Another Mysterious Guest    | ----- | Mary K. Winkler |
| Village Miser               | ----- | Herb Hendricks  |
| Village School Teacher      | ----- | Ruth Curry      |
| Banker's Daughter           | ----- | Maxine Brown    |

BACK STAGE STUFF

We heard more about Garnet's love affairs back stage than the audience heard. Much more! Maxine Brown almost got drowned. Clair brought a girl to the play, but did not know her name. Garnet went in the dressing room when Clair was dressing exactly four times; we counted 'em. Clair went in the dressing room to put on his night shirt and left the door open! Mary K. really took heart powders. We wonder why? Addie could hear perfectly well back stage. Miss Raines and Mr. Stewart bribed us to prevent our chewing gum. Mr. Stewart gave each of us a bar of candy and Miss Raines gave us chewing gum. Norma and Whitey practiced their kissing back stage. It's funny they would not do it on the stage. Maybe they don't like to be watched. L. Dee could only laugh when someone told him a funny story. L. Dee's expression when Mary K. and Norma gave him his reward for fixing the stairway.

ACTIVITIES

FRESHMEN INITIATION

The "Green" Freshmen, as they are usually called, were initiated by the Sophomores at a party given in the old gym. From what we hear, the freshmen now think it is fun to run around the track without their shoes. They tried to feed them candy and when they didn't like the cotton in it, they made them go home. The Sophomores then had a nice time at their party.

SENIORS GO TO VINCENNES

The Senior Civics Class went to Vincennes to visit the George Rogers Clark Memorial. The opening event on the program was the Vincennes High School Band. Father Deery and Professor Lockridge gave talks on some of the things Clark has done for this country. They toured all of the important places and came home feeling they had acquired much knowledge for use in the future.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

The play, "Mystery at Midnight," was given by the Junior Class. It was a three act comedy, but I think most of the people were afraid—it was really spooky! These people were included in the cast: Eugene Miller, Virginia Day, Loester Powell, Marian Bastin, Geraldine Cole, Juanita King, Eugene Moore, Charles May, Vera Taylor, and Samuel Baynes.

SENIORS SPONSOR "TEXAS RANGERS"

The "Texas Rangers", sponsored by the Senior Class, came to the old gym to give us a performance. They are from radio station WHAS in Louisville, Kentucky. There were quite a number of people who came out to see them perform, and I think everyone agreed that it was well worth their money.

SENIORS SPONSOR "SUNSHINE SUE" AND "ROCK-CREEK RANGERS"

"Sunshine Sue" and the "Rock-Creek Rangers" were here from station WHAS in Louisville, Kentucky. A large crowd attended the performance in which many of the students took part in an amateur contest. The Seniors sponsored the show, and it made us very happy when one of the girls in the class was a member of the quartet which won first prize.

SENIOR ACTIVITIES

CLASS NIGHT

The Senior Class of Ellettsville High School presented a program on the night of April 21, 1939. The entertainment was in the form of a "hay-loft party" with each member taking part.

JUNIOR-SENIOR BANQUET

The Juniors entertained the Seniors at a lovely banquet held April 22, at the Graham Hotel in Bloomington. After dinner was served everyone enjoyed a midnight show.

BACCALAUREATE

On Sunday evening, April 23, 1939, parents and friends gathered in the Baptist Church to hear the Baccalaureate Sermon delivered by Reverend Evans of the Baptist Church of Ellettsville. His sermon was very interesting and everyone benefited by it. The Reverend Crider of the Ellettsville Methodist Church pronounced the benediction.

COMMENCEMENT

On April 24, the Senior Class of 1939 assembled in the new high school gymnasium for the presentation of diplomas. The commencement address was delivered by Dr. Montgomery from Vincennes. The address was very interesting and enjoyed by all who were present. Diplomas were presented to the graduating class by the principal, Mr. C. E. Stewart. Benediction was given by the Reverend Crider.

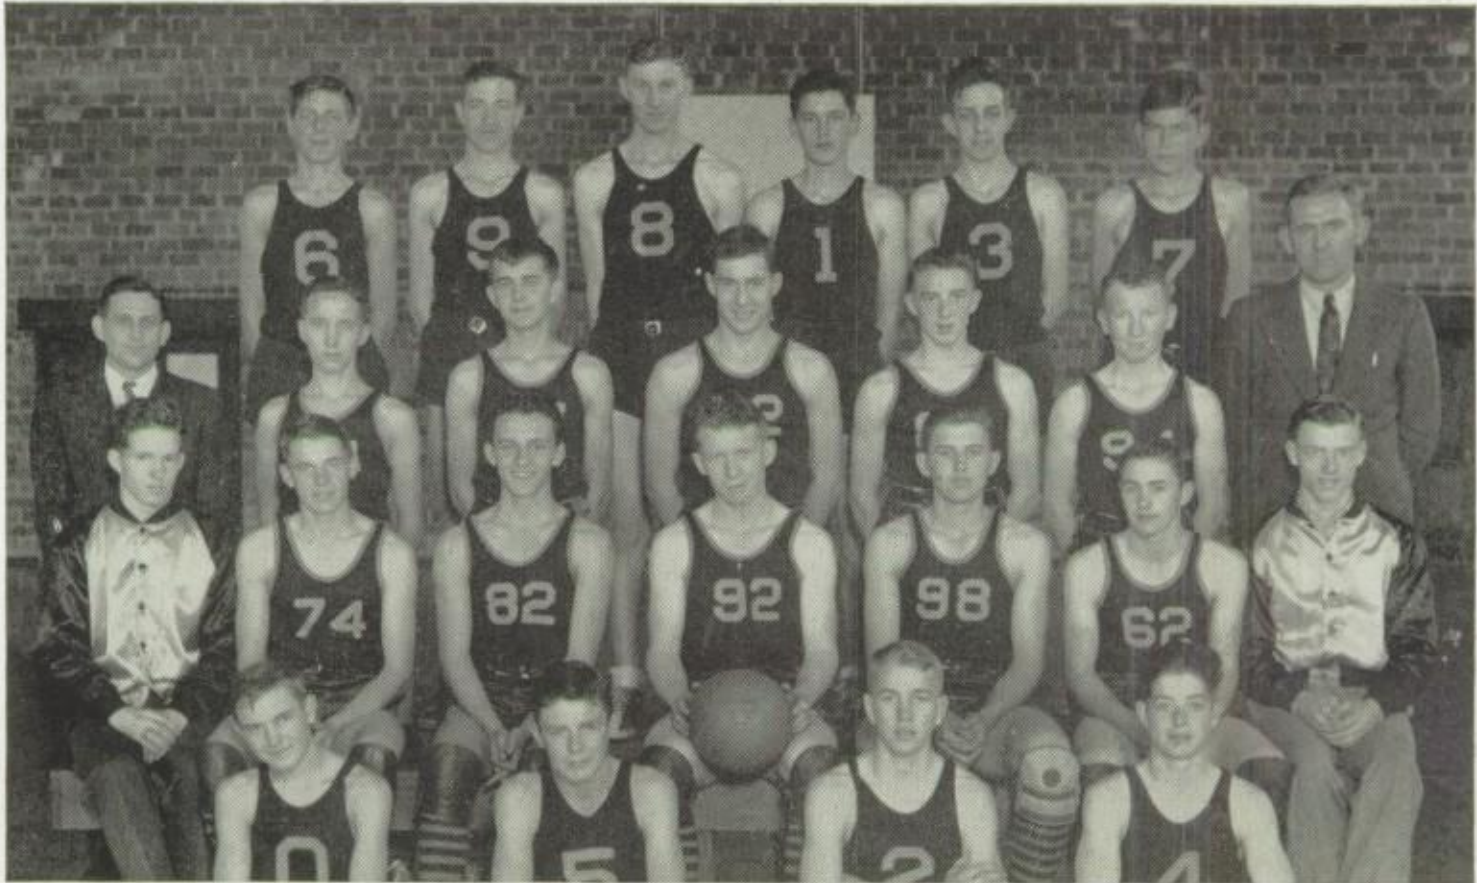

The Eagles, instructed by Coach Maurice Sakel, have been successful enough to win fourteen games from their twenty scheduled games. They were defeated by the following teams: West Baden, Bloomington, French Lick (twice), Dale, and Shoals. This year's record is above average; however, it does not rank as high as the record of last year. The team was unsuccessful in carrying away the laurels of the Wabash Valley Preliminary at Spencer, as they were defeated by Gosport in the final game. The Eagles have encountered different, as well as bigger and better, teams this year.

The Eagles took part in the sectional held at Martinsville, Indiana. The team was lucky when it came to drawing, for they drew the by, but they were not quite so lucky when they met their team which was Mooresville. Mooresville won by a small margin, and that put the Eagles out for this year. But we are hoping that next year that nothing can put them out; that they can go ahead farther than any other team of Eagles has ever gone. Better luck next year to the Eagles!

GRANT STEWART and COZIENE WEATHERS

"The Sock Washers" proved to be very capable assistants to Coach Sakel, and were always ready in case of an emergency with the medicine kit. They have kept the basketball equipment in first-class shape.

GLEN STINES

"Terror of the Hardwood" was one of his many names. He was lighter and smaller than many of his opponents, but he made up for that in fight and determination to win.

BILLY KELLY

"Bill," to the regret of all Ellettsville basketball fans, graduates this year. He played an equally good game at guard or center. His playing was especially noticeable when he played guard, as he had the weight to drive through and score.

FORREST FREEMAN

"Butch" is a fast little forward of our team who always scores a lot of points. He was one of the captains of our team. The Ellettsville school will miss his eye for the basket next year.

ROBERT JACKSON

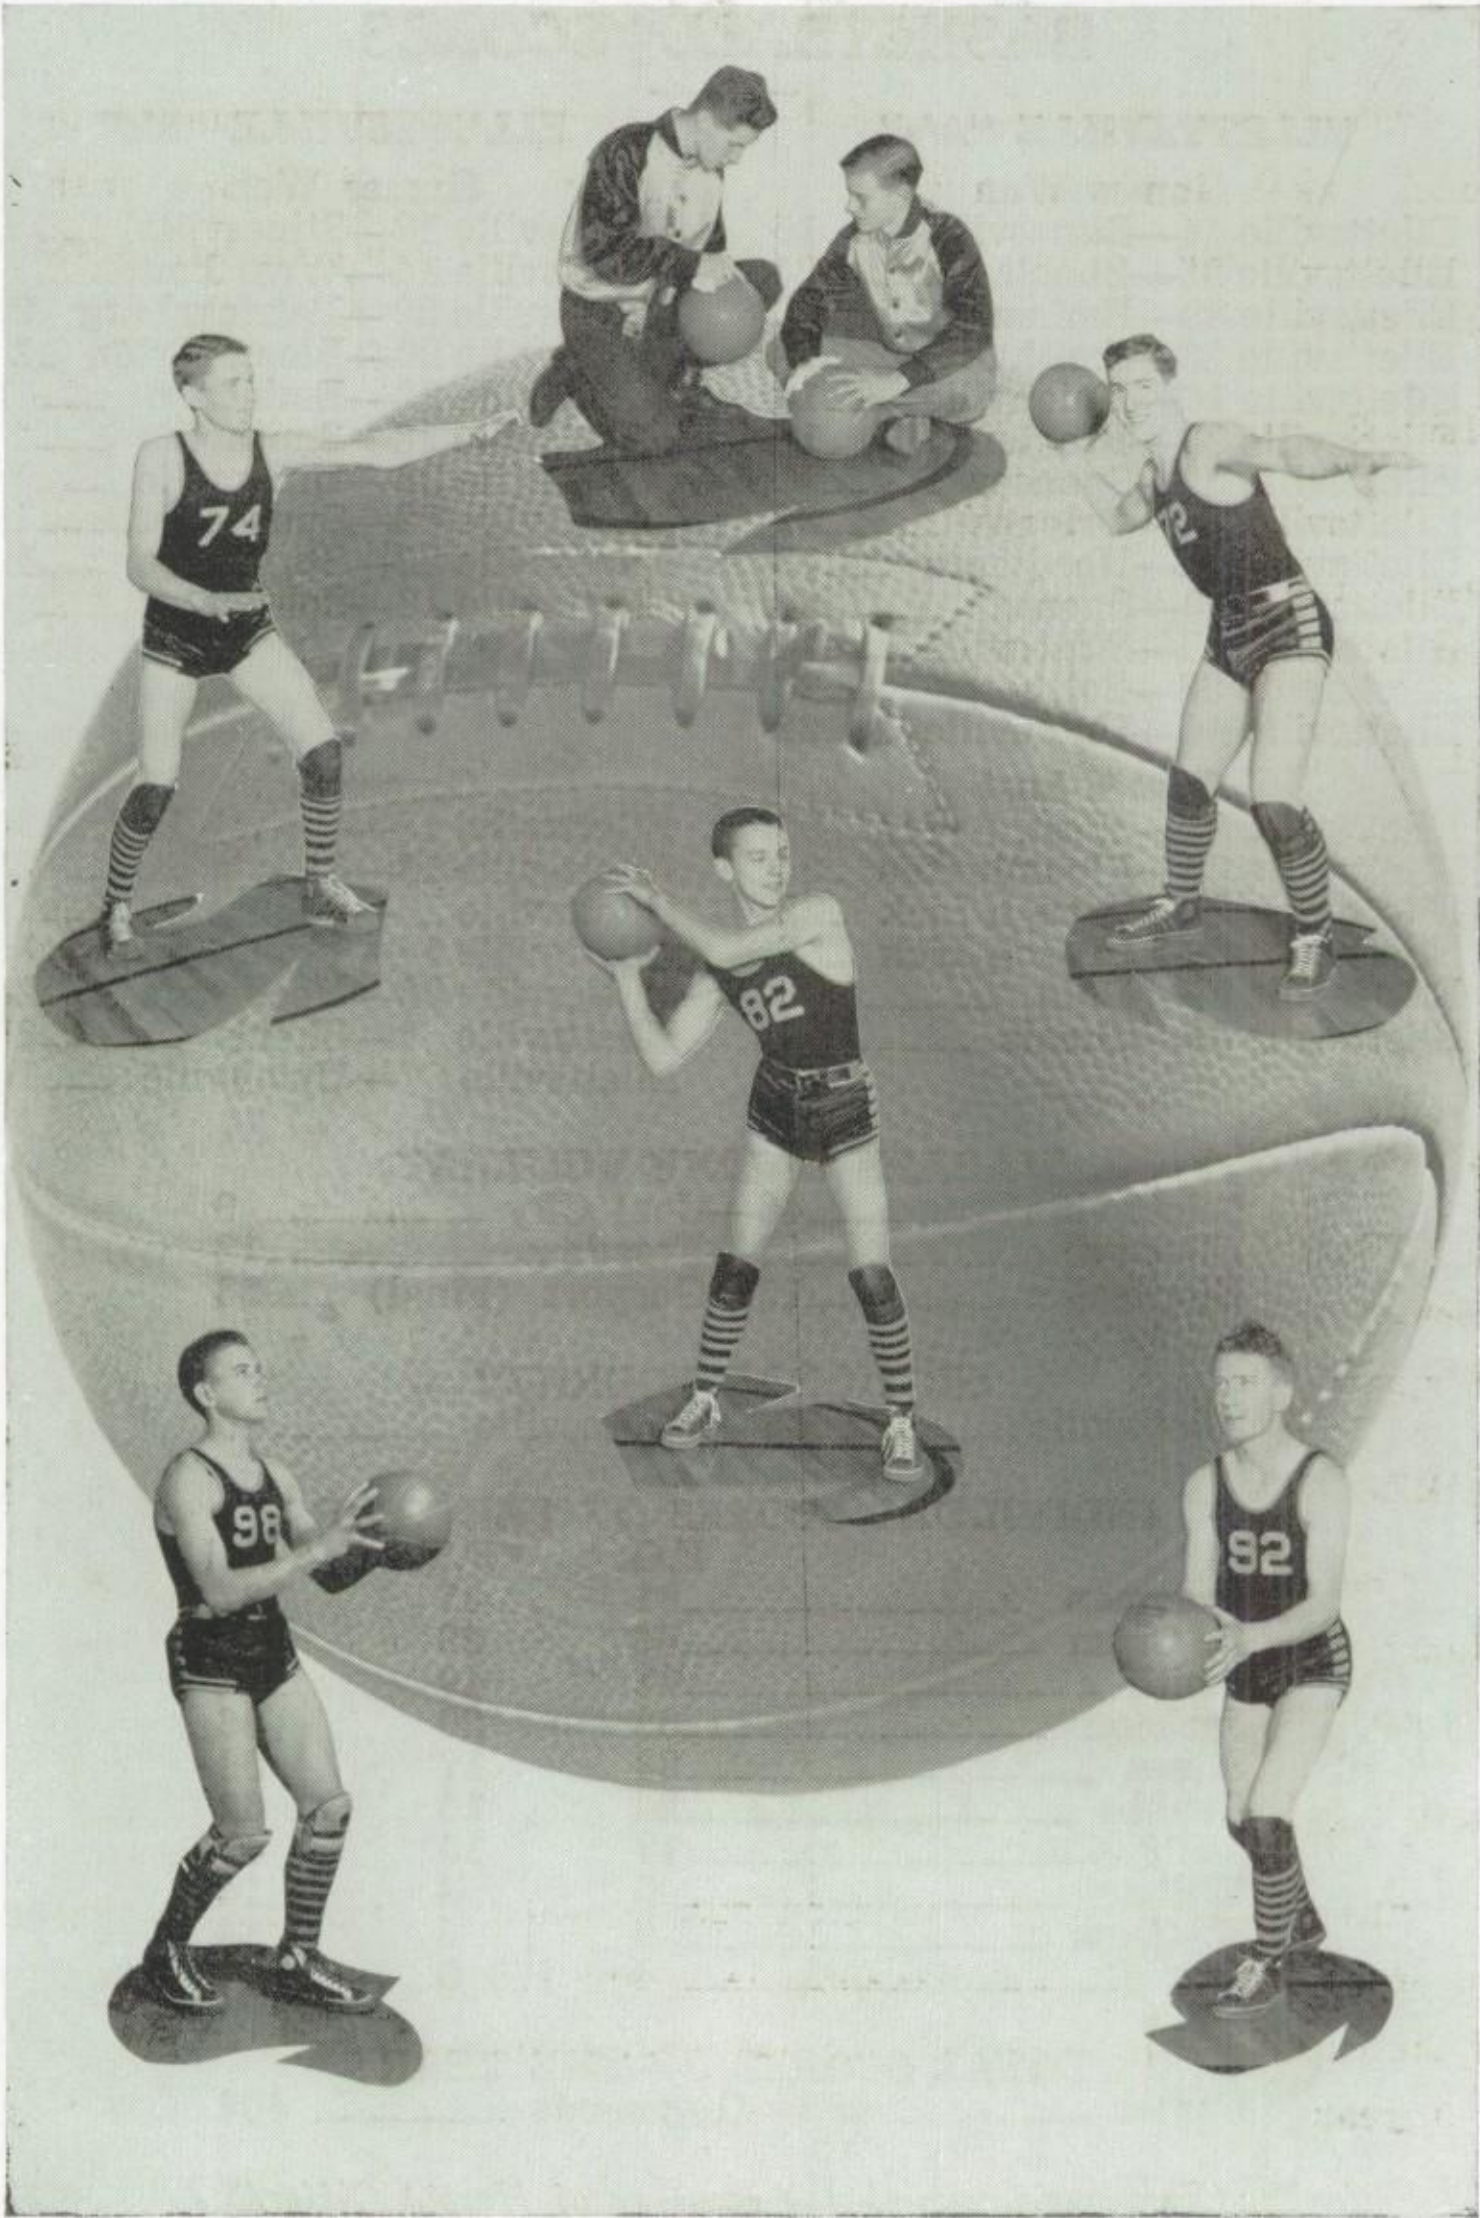

"Sec" was the center of our team; when he got started he had plenty of steam. He has been a member of our squad for four years. His greatest delight was to tip one in.

FRED CRUM

"Red's" head could always be distinguished shining in the thickest of the fight. He was dependable in any crisis. He was also one of the captains for the year. He has been a member of the squad for four years.

Orchestra practice was in full swing, but something had gone wrong. Miss Reeves glared at Alice Lee.

"Why on earth did you leave off playing just as we got to the chorus?"

"Well," retorted our accordion player, "on my music it says, 'Refrain,' so I did."

Ruth Curry: "By Buffalo?"

There is one disadvantage in being a microbe. It's too easy for people to magnify your faults.

Rozelle Trowbridge: "Is Rudy Vallee a Connecticut Yankee?"

Virginia Shigley: "Surely you've heard of the Connecticut valleys!"

Bernard: "How can you tell when Miss Reeves asks a serious question?"

Helen Carpenter: "Watch and see if last year's flunkers laugh."

A girl who is fishing for a husband will go out with most any worm.

Luella: "Norris Lee hung up his stocking Christmas Eve."

Ellalouise: "What did he get?"

Luella: "A notice from the Health Department."

A bachelor is a man who never makes the same mistake once.

Even his best friends wouldn't tell him—so he flunked the exam.

Many people have a good aim in life, but never pull the trigger.

Garnet: "How's your test average in Geometry?"

Hubert G.: "Got 97 so far."

Garnet: "Mighty good."

Hubert: "Yeah, made 35 on the first test, 40 on the second, and 22 on the third."

Mr. Weathers: "Well, Lucille, I see you weren't talking in study hall this morning."

Lucille: "No, sir. I never talk in my sleep."

Jeanne: "To think I'm the first girl you ever loved."

Warren: "Yes, darling."

Jeanne: "And to think that you think I believe that."

Mr. Stuart: "Did you ever hear of any success in history without arms?"

Mary Ellen S.: "What about the Winged Victory?"

Father: "Son, what did you do with that last ten spot I gave you?"

Warren Schooling: "I bought a dollar's worth of apples and oranges and spent the rest on dates."

Miss Harding: "Can you tell me when the revival of learning took place?"

Dola Conner: "Just before the finals."

Mr. McJilton: "Do you believe in heredity?"

Sakel: "Of course I do. Why I have one of the brightest boys you ever saw."

Clair Dillman: "Give me some of that monoaceticacides-ter of salicylic acid."

Drug Clerk: "Do you mean aspirin, sir?"

Clair: "Yes, that's it. I never can remember that name."

Mr. Stewart: (In Geometry class): "What's all the noise about?"

Melvin Taylor: "Nothing, I just dropped a perpendicular."

Sigrid Moffatt: "He's so romantic. Every time he speaks to me he says, 'Fair Lady.'"

Herbert: "There's nothing romantic in that. It's merely a force of habit as he used to be a streetcar conductor."

Eugene Weaver: "Today I met a girl who had never been kissed."

Coziene: "Say, I would like to meet her."

Eugene: "You're too late now!"

He: "Can you keep a secret?"

She: "Yes, but unfortunately, I always tell it to someone who can't."

Mr. Stewart: "Clair, what does this mean? Someone just called up and said that you were sick and could not come to school today."

Clair: "Ha, ha! The joke is on him. He wasn't supposed to call up until tomorrow."

When someone asked Fred Crum if he could do something that no one else could, he said, "Yes, I can read my own writing."

 For hours they had been together on her front porch. The moon cast its tender gleam down on them.

He sighed. She sighed. Finally, "I wish I had money," he said, "I'd travel."

Impulsively she slipped her hand into his, rising swiftly, she sped into the house.

Aghast he looked into his hand. In his palm lay a nickel.

 Glendale was much upset over a problem in arithmetic. "Daddy, you told me how to work this problem in yards, but teacher said to work it in feet."

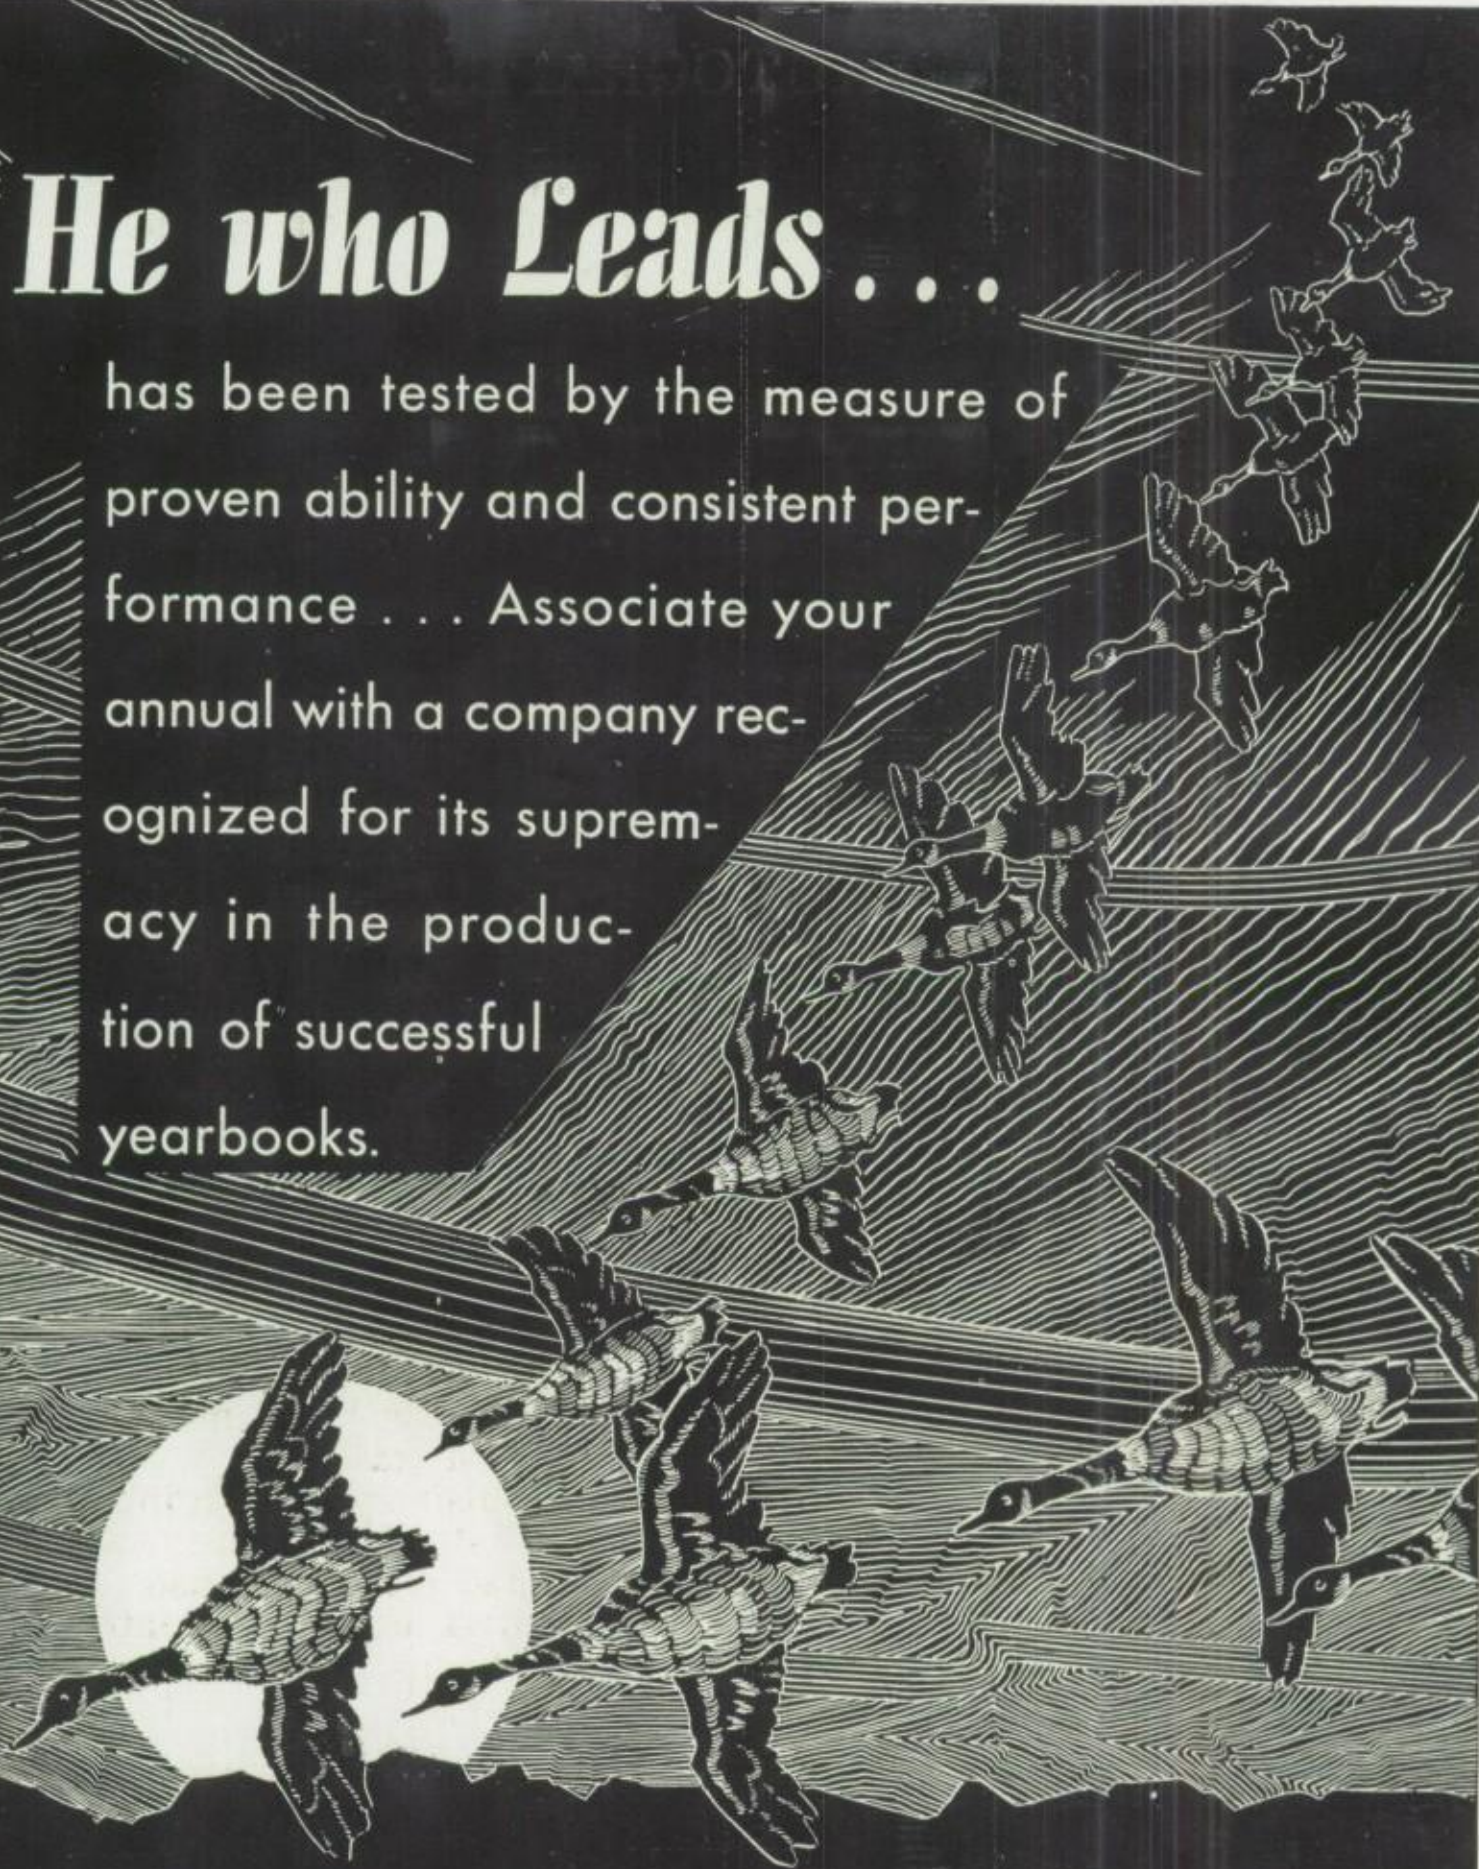

"Well, don't you know how many feet are in a yard?"

"Of course not! Every-body's feet aren't the same size."
